BETHANY COLLEGE AWARDS $23,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES

Gil Dueck presents award to Michelle Dyck

On November 13, 2013, Bethany College awarded over $23,000 in scholarships and bursaries to current students. Associate Director of Donor Relations, Cliff Brandes announced the winners at a school chapel assembly.

The scholarships and bursaries are from people and organizations that strongly believe in Christian higher education and in Bethany College. Since 1927, Bethany has relied on the generous and visionary financial giving of their support community: church congregations, alumni, parents of students, and friends of the college. As a private Christian school, Bethany receives no government funding.

Michelle Dyck, recipient of the Jake & Iona Wiebe Memorial Scholarship of $750, was grateful for the award: "I am paying for my own schooling while at Bethany, so to receive a scholarship is such a blessing and a help. It not only helps financially, but I see it as a gift from God. He has made it known that he wants me here and will provide for me through the financial blessings that I have received."

In all, eighty-seven applications were submitted to the five-person selection committee. Some of the scholarships / bursaries were available to all students and some to returning students only. The recipients were as follows:
